

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Mae Pettegrew was born on April 3, 1905, in Fall River County; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Mae was united in marriage to Enise Egly, and to this union four children were born, she has fifteen grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren and seven great-great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Mae resides in Marshall, Minnesota; and,

Whereas, Mae will celebrate her 100th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives gather on April 2, 2005, to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 3, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join all her many friends and relatives in wishing her a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds
